

Suggested revision of Houghton Mifflin Contract,
Paragraph 1

1. The Author hereby grants and assigns to the Publishers the exclusive publication rights for the United States and Canada in and to a work the subject or title of which is BIS ZUM BITTERN ENDE (TO THE BITTER END), Volumes I and II with all abridgments, selections, and all other rights now or hereafter during the term of this agreement recognized as the property of the Author in said work or in any parts thereof, except translations and publication rights in countries other than the United States and Canada; together with the exclusive right and power in the name of the Author to take out copyright thereof in the United States and Canada, to renew said copyrights, and to publish and sell said work in all editions, abridgments, and selections during the term of the original copyright and during any renewal or extension thereof, under the present or future law of either of said countries. The obligations of and benefits to the Parties with respect to any renewal or extension shall be the same as for the original term.
